

Why Choose Us!

We are a proud member of Relocation Agent Network, a national network of independent estate agents. But what does our membership mean to you?

We don't just talk a good talk, Relocation Agent Network members sell a property every three minutes across England, Scotland and Wales.*

Relocation Agent Network collectively sells a property every three minutes during the day across the working week.

Our time is dedicated to you.

We don't just stop working once we've found you a buyer. We dedicate our time to making sure the sale process goes as smoothly as possible. In fact, over 90% of Network members have increased the time spent on sales progression in the last year.*

*In a 2014 survey, 91% of member respondents indicated that they had increased the time spent on sales progression in the last 12 months

We have been specially selected by Relocation Agent Network, based on criteria such as quality of service, local knowledge and professionalism. This means, in the Network's opinion, we're the premier independent estate agent in the area.

Through our national connections we can help sell your home and refer you to a fellow Network member in the new location you're moving to. Whether it's five or 500 miles away, we have relationships with estate agents covering around 1,000 locations and potential access to additional out of town buyers viewing your property.

We can offer you international connections (through our affiliation with Cartus), including access to the world's largest franchisor of real estate agents.

hours training

Quality of service is Relocation Agent Network's main focus.

In the last six months alone, the Network has provided over 500 hours of training to agents like us, focusing on the importance of customer service.

As the area's appointed LOCAL EXPERT, we're here to guide you through the entire selling process. Have a question... call us, email us, pop into the office, we're here to help you!
